To be registered in the Special List, the legitimate person shall submit, pursuant to this article, a request together with a communication attesting the possession of the shares - which may regard even only part of the shares held by the shareholder - issued by the intermediary at which the shares are deposited pursuant to the regulations in force. voting rights has been lost.

5. 6. The increased voting right already accrued or, if not accrued yet, the period of ownership required to accrue the increased voting right, shall be cancelled:

a) in the event of transfer, whether for consideration or free of charge, of the share, without prejudice to what is set forth herein, it being understood that "transfer" also means to the creation of a pledge, usufruct or other encumbrance on the share when this implies the loss of the voting right by the shareholder; for the sake of clarity, it is specified that if only part of the stake is transferred, the increased voting right shall be retained in relation to any shares not transferred;

b) in the event of transfer, whether direct or indirect, of controlling stakes in companies or entities that hold shares with an increased voting right to an extent exceeding the threshold set forth in article 120, par. 2 of Legislative Decree no. 58 of 24 February 1998.

c) is retained in the event of merger or demerger of the holder of the shares, in favour of the incorporating company resulting from the merger or the beneficiary of the demerger, provided that the incorporating company resulting from the merger or the beneficiary of the demerger is directly or indirectly controlled by the same entity that,

to article 2442 of the Italian Civil Code and cases of share capital increase by new contributions made in the exercise of option rights originally due in relation to the shares for which the increased voting right has already been earned, as well as in the case of the exercise of the conversion right attached to convertible bonds and other debt securities structured in any manner whatsoever which envisage this in their regulation;

h) is retained when the shareholding is registered in the name of a fiduciary, in the event of change of the fiduciary provided that the grantor is the same and this is appropriately certified by the new fiduciary;

The newly issued shares, in the cases pursuant to letters (d) and (e) of the previous paragraph, accrue the increased voting right (i) if due to the holder in relation to shares for which the increased voting right has already been earned, from the moment of registration in the Special List (with no need for a further continuous period of ownership to be completed); and (ii) if due to the holder in relation to shares for which the increased voting right has not yet been earned (but is currently being earned), as of the end of the continuous period of ownership, calculated as of the original registration in the Special List.

7. The person holding increased voting rights has always the right to irrevocably waive (all or in part) the increased voting right at any time by sending a written communication to the company, without prejudice to the fact that the increased voting right may be acquired again with respect to the shares for which the waiver was submitted with a new registration in the Special List and after the continuous period of ownership of no fewer than twenty-four months has been completed in full.

8. The increased voting right is also calculated for the determination of quora to convene the shareholders' meeting and pass resolutions that refer to shares of the share capital . The increase has no effect on the rights, other than voting rights, afforded on the basis of ownership of specific shares of the share capital .

9. For the purposes of this article, the notion of control is that set forth in regulations in force for listed issuers.

10. The board of directors adopts a regulation governing the methods for implementing the increased voting right and the management of the Special List.

11. Any amendment (improving or worsening) the rules on the increased voting right set forth in this article or its suppression shall require nothing more than approval by the Extraordinary Meeting pursuant to the law. The right of withdrawal is excluded in any event.

12. If the Company issues shares without voting rights, the Board of Directors will convene the appropriate Meetings, in the event that the shares without voting rights or the ordinary shares are delisted, to vote the convertibility of the shares without voting rights into ordinary shares according to the conversion ratio that will be decided by the Extraordinary Meeting.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPRESENTATION

Article 13 – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors composed of a number of members variable from a minimum of 3 to a maximum of 15 depending on the number established by the Meeting.

Appointment of the Board of Directors takes place on the basis of the lists of candidates deposited at the company offices no later than the twenty-fourth day before the date of the meeting. In the presence of a number of lists, one of the members of the board of directors is expressed by the second list that has obtained the most votes.

Only shareholders who, singly or together with others, are owners of shares with voting rights representing at least 2.5% of company capital or the different percentage laid down for the company by the regulations in force, may submit lists. Evidence of this this portion of ownership must be given through special notices which must be sent to the company at least twenty-one days before the meeting date. All this will be mentioned in the notice of the meeting.

No shareholder, nor shareholders linked by relations of control or related pursuant to the Italian civil code, may present or vote for more than one list, not even through a third party or fiduciary company. Each candidate may be included in only one list or will otherwise be considered ineligible.

The candidates included in the lists must be listed with progressive numbers and possess the integrity requirements established by law. The candidate named under number one in sequential order must also possess the requisite of independence as set forth by law, as well as the requirements set forth by the code of corporate governance to which the company has already declared to adhere.

Lists that include three or more candidates must also include both male and female candidates, so that the composition of the Board of Directors complies with the regulations on gender balance.

Each list shall be accompanied by detailed information on the candidates' personal and professional qualities, as well as the declarations in which the individual candidates accept the candidature and state, under their own responsibility, that they possess the requirements demanded. Any candidates who do not comply with the aforesaid provisions shall be considered ineligible.

The number of directors to be elected is decided by the meeting according to the following procedure:

1. all the directors to be elected except one are elected from the list that has obtained most votes, on the basis of the progressive order of the list;
2. in accordance with the law, one director is elected from the second list that has obtained the highest number of votes, on the basis of the progressive order of the list.

Lists that obtained a percentage of votes lower than half of the amount set out in paragraph three of this article shall not be taken in account.

However, further to the above, if the composition of the Board of Directors does not comply with regulations on gender balance, the most recently elected candidates of the most represented gender on the list that obtained the highest number of votes, considering their progressive number, will be replaced in the number necessary to ensure compliance with the above regulation by the top ranking candidates not elected on the same list of the less represented gender. If application of this procedure still does not ensure compliance with the prevailing regulation on gender balance, the most recently elected candidates of the more represented gender on the list that obtained the highest number of votes, considering their progressive number, will be replaced by the Shareholders' Meeting in the number necessary to ensure compliance with the prevailing regulation, with the majorities described in article 11.

The above rules for the appointment of the board of directors are not applied unless at least two lists have been presented or voted on in the meetings that must substitute directors during the course of their mandate. In these cases, the meeting decides with a relative majority vote to ensure compliance with the law and the By-Laws on matters of the composition of the Board of Directors.

If in during the financial year one or more Directors were to leave their office, the Board shall replace the Directors in accordance with the civil code to ensure compliance with the law and the By-Laws on requirement regarding Board of Directors composition. If, due to resignation or other causes, the majority of Directors should leave office, the whole Board shall be deemed to be resigning and the Directors still in office should urgently call a Meeting for the new appointments.

The Directors remain in office for a maximum of three years and their mandate expires at the date of the Shareholders' Meeting for the approval of the last financial statements of their period in office; these Directors can be re-appointed. The term of office of any Director appointed by the Meeting in the course of a three-year term shall expire on expiry of the term of office of Directors in office at the time of the appointment.

Directors who receive definitive convictions in the courts entailing additional sentences incompatible with their position are suspended from their position for the period established by the sentence.

Directors who are subjected to disciplinary measures by the bodies of the F.I.G.C. that entail the permanent exclusion from any level and category of the F.I.G.C. must leave office and cannot fill or be nominated or elected to other Company positions.

Article 14 – OFFICERS OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors, if this has not been decided by the Shareholders' Meeting, shall appoint a Chairman among its members. It may also appoint one or more Vice Chairmen and one or more Chief Executive Officers. The Board can also appoint a Secretary who may not necessarily be a member of the Board.

Article 15 – MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors shall meet either at the registered office or elsewhere, provided that it is in a European country, at least every three months whenever the Chairman or a Vice Chairman or upon request of the persons duly qualified according to the law deems it necessary, or every time the same considers it in the best interests of the Company, or whenever a meeting has been requested by at least three Directors or at least two acting Statutory Auditors or bodies with delegated powers. The meetings shall be presided over by the Chairman, or in his absence, by the Vice Chairman nominated by the Board. In the event of his absence, the chair will be taken by another director nominated by the Board. The meeting shall be called by letter, telegram, fax, e-mail or similar at least three days before the date fixed for the meeting, except in the case of extreme urgency.

Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held via means of telecommunications. In that case all the Directors present must be able to be identified and follow the discussion, take part in real time in the discussion of the matters and receive, send and consult documents.

Article 16 – RESOLUTIONS OF THE BOARD

The resolutions of the Board of Directors shall be valid if at least the majority of the members is present. Resolutions shall be taken by absolute majority of votes of the Directors present at the meeting. In the event of an equal number of votes, the vote of the Chairman of the meeting shall prevail. All resolutions taken at the meeting shall be recorded in minutes signed by the Chairman of the meeting and the Secretary.

Article 17 – POWERS OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors is vested with all and every power for the ordinary and extraordinary management of the Company. The Board is therefore empowered to take such action as it shall deem proper to pursue the Company's business purpose, with the exception of the powers reserved by law to the Shareholders' Meeting.

The Board of Directors can issue non-convertible bonds and also pass resolutions regarding transactions as provided by article 2365, second paragraph, of the Italian Civil Code as well as decide for the spin-off of companies according to the provisions of the law.

Article 18 – EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Board can appoint an Executive Committee among its members, setting the number of members and delegating all or a part of its powers, save those powers expressly reserved by law to the Board. The same provisions of Articles 15 and 16 for the Board of Directors apply with respect to the meetings and the resolutions of the Executive Committee. The Secretary of the Board is also the Secretary of the Executive Committee.

Article 19 – GENERAL MANAGER – MANAGER RESPONSIBLE FOR DRAWING UP COMPANY ACCOUNTING DOCUMENTS

The Board of Directors can, as provided for by law, appoint a General Manager, setting the powers, attributions and any remuneration.

In case of any discrepancies between the official document in Italian and the English translation, as well as in case of any dispute on the content of the document, the document in Italian shall always prevail.

The Board of Directors shall, after consulting the Board of Statutory Auditors, appoint a manager responsible for drawing up company accounting documents; the person appointed must have several years of experience in administrative and financial matters in companies of significant size.

Article 20 - EMOLUMENTS

The Board is entitled to an annual emolument which shall be voted by the Shareholders' Meeting; the manner to allocate emolument among the Board members shall be decided respectively Board or Executive Committee resolution. The Directors who have been delegated special assignments or powers, after approval by the Board of Statutory Auditors, can be assigned special fees, also in the form of profit sharing. All these amounts shall be recorded under general expenses.

Article 21 – LEGAL REPRESENTATION

Legal representation of the Company vis-à-vis third parties and in court proceedings shall be the duty of the Chairman and, if appointed, Vice Chairmen and Chief Executive Officers within the limits of the powers granted to them by the Board of Directors and also for the execution of the resolutions of the Board and in legal proceedings.

In addition, the Board of Directors may, as provided by law, attribute powers to other Directors, nominees or managers who will exercise such power within the limits set by the Board.

BOARD OF STATUTORY AUDITORS AND AUDITS

Article 22 - AUDITORS

The Board of Statutory Auditors shall consist of 3 acting Statutory Auditors and 2 alternate Statutory Auditors. Minority shareholders may appoint one standing Statutory Auditor and one alternate Statutory Auditor.

Appointment of the Board of Statutory Auditors takes place on the basis of the lists of candidates deposited at the company offices within twenty-fifth days before the date of the meeting, in which the candidates are listed by a progressive number. The list is divided into two sections: one is for acting Statutory Auditors candidates and the other is for alternate Statutory Auditors candidates, in a number no higher than the number of auditors to be elected.

Lists can only be presented by shareholders which, alone or together with other shareholders, own voting shares representing the percentage specified in the third paragraph of Article 13; this share of ownership must be shown in special notices which must reach the company at least twenty-one days before the meeting date. All this will be mentioned in the notice of the meeting.

This is a non-binding English courtesy translation of "Statuto". The Italian version of "Statuto" is the only official document having legal effects. In case of any discrepancies between the official document in Italian and the English translation, as well as in case of any dispute on the content of the document, the document in Italian shall always prevail.

Shareholders cannot present or vote, either through a third party or fiduciary company, more than one list. Shareholders belonging to the same group and shareholders belonging to a shareholder syndicate regarding company shares may not present or vote for more than one list, even if through third parties or fiduciary companies. Each candidate may be included on only one list, and will otherwise be considered ineligible. Only candidates who meet the requirements on the limits on the accumulation of positions specified by the applicable regulations and who meet the requirements of these regulations and these Company By-laws may be included in the lists. As is specified in article 1, section 2, letters b) and c) and section 3 of the Ministerial Decree no. 162 of 30 March 2000 concerning the qualifications of the board of statutory auditors of listed companies, for questions closely related to the activities of the Company, these include commercial law, industrial law, sports law, business economics and finance as well as other disciplines regarding similar subjects, even if indicated by different definitions, while the fields of activity strictly regarding the Company's operations include the fields of sport and professional sports.

Lists that, taking into account both sections, include three or more candidates must include both male and female candidates in the top two spots of the section relating to the acting auditors, so that the composition of the Board of Statutory Auditors complies with the regulations on gender balance.

Outgoing auditors may be re-elected. The lists presented must also be furnished with:

- a) information regarding the identity of the shareholders that have presented lists, with the indication of percentage of the overall shareholding owned;
- b) a declaration of shareholders other than those that hold, even jointly, a controlling share or relative majority, certifying the absence of related links with the latter covered by the regulations in force;
- c) full information on the personal and professional characteristics of the candidates, as well as a declaration by them of possessing the prerequisites required by law and the Company By-laws and their acceptance of the candidature;
- d) the list of directorship and control positions occupied by candidates in other companies, with the undertaking to update this list at the date of the meeting.

Any candidates who do not comply with the aforesaid provisions shall be considered ineligible.

In the event that at the date of the above deadline only a single list has been deposited, i.e. only lists presented by shareholders who, on the base of what is set out above, are connected with each other in the sense of the regulations in force, lists may be presented up to the third day following that date. In this case the threshold is reduced by one half.

The lists may be deposited by using at least one means of distance communication, according to the methods described in the notice of calling, which allow the individuals depositing the list to be identified.

Prompt notification pursuant to the regulations in force must be given of the absence minority lists, of the extended deadline for the presentation of them and the reduction in the threshold as mentioned above.

The appointment of the members of the Board of Statutory Auditors is as follows:

1. two acting statutory members and one alternate member are elected from the list which has obtained the highest number of votes, in the progressive order in which they are listed thereon;
2. the remaining acting statutory member and the other alternate statutory member are elected from the list which has obtained the second highest number of votes from the Meeting and which is not connected to the reference shareholders on the basis of the progressive order in the sections of the list; in the event of parity between a number of lists, the candidates elected are those of the list presented by shareholders holding the largest shareholding, or, secondarily, by the highest number of shareholders.

The Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors shall be the statutory member indicated as the first candidate on the list indicated in point 2 above.

If it is not possible to appoint the Statutory Auditors in the manner described above, the candidates will be appointed by a simple majority of votes cast by the shareholders present at the Meeting in order to ensure compliance with the law and the By-Laws on matters of the composition of the Board of Statutory Auditors. In the event the requisites demanded by law and by-laws are no longer met, the Statutory Auditor shall be relieved of office.

In the event of the replacement of a Statutory Auditor, including the position of Chairman, the alternate belonging to the same list as the resigned auditor shall take the place of the same, when the Statutory Auditors have been nominated through lists.
