

PRESS RELEASE

Turin, 20 April 2023 – Juventus Football Club S.p.A. ("Juventus" or the "Company") informs that today the Sport Guarantee Board before CONI (Collegio di Garanzia dello Sport presso il CONI) has granted the Company's appeal against the Decision/0063/CFA-2022-2023 of the Federal Court of Appeal – Unified Sections and, on the basis of grounds not yet available, remanded to the Federal Court of Appeal "so that, in a different composition, it may renew its assessment, in particular, with regard to the determination of the causal contribution of each director, providing adequate justification and drawing the eventual consequences also with regard to the sanction imposed on the company Juventus F.C. S.p.A."

The annulled decision, on 20 January 2023, had ordered the revocation of the decision of the Federal Court of Appeal – Unified Sections no. 0089/CFA-2021-2022 and, as a result, had imposed a penalty of 15 points in the standing for Juventus to be deducted in the current Sport Season, as well as certain sanctions against current and former Company's members.
